Defendants.)

Plaintiff Elvis Basic (“Basic”) is an inmate at the Greenville Federal Correctional Institution in Greenville, Illinois. He initiated this action in January 2020 with the submission of a motion to proceed in forma pauperis, which the court granted, and a complaint. (Doc. Nos. 2, 3, 6, and 8). He also filed a motion ostensibly requesting a stay of proceedings “until the defendant have reasonable time to resolve the claim and the remedies are exhausted.”

On February 11, 2020, laboring under the misapprehension or misunderstanding that plaintiff’s claims pertained to Basic’s federal criminal proceedings and by extension his present federal incarceration, the court granted Basic’s motion for a stay of proceedings. (Doc. No. 10).

On February 28, 2020, Basic filed a motion requesting that the court reconsider its order granting his earlier motion for a stay. He avers that the court misconstrued his complaint as a collateral challenge his federal incarceration and clarifies that his claims pertain to a state charge which he was acquitted in May of 2018.

The court has now reviewed the record. In light of the clarification provided by Basic, the court finds it prudent to lift the stay. Accordingly, Basic’s motion for reconsideration (Doc. No. 14) is GRANTED and the stay is lifted. The Clerk's office shall refrain from serving defendants until directed to do so as the court must still review Basic's claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 6th day of October, 2020.
